If you are a council tenant

Your council will pay any Housing Benefit you are awarded into your rent account.

If you rent your home from a private landlord

Your council will usually pay your benefit to you. Your council can pay your money

- straight into a bank, building society or National Savings Bank account
- by cheque.

It is then your responsibility to pay your rent to your landlord.

In some cases, your council can pay your money direct to your landlord. If you are unable to manage your rent payments, contact your council and ask them to pay your benefit direct to your landlord. Your local council may ask you for more information.

If you rent your home from a housing association

You can choose how your council pays your benefit. Your council can pay your money

- straight into a bank, building society or National Savings Bank account
- by cheque, or
- direct to your landlord.

If you are awarded Council Tax Benefit

Your council will pay your Council Tax Benefit into your Council Tax account.

Your council will normally pay your money into an account

Many banks and building societies will let you collect your money at the post office.

Your council will tell you if the amount they pay into the account is going to change.

Finding out how much your council has paid into the account

You can check your payments on account statements. If you think a payment is wrong, get in touch with your council straight away.

You must tick one of these boxes.

 - the terms and conditions of their account allow this, and
 - they agree to let you use their account, and
 - you are sure they will use your money in the way you tell them.
- You can use a credit union account. You must tell us the credit union's account details. Your credit union will be able to help you with this.

I will send you a filled-in Paying benefit to your landlord form later.

Do not delay in sending this form in.

Please tick to say what proof you are sending with this form. We must see original documents, not copies.

Please do not send valuable items through the post. If you can, bring them into your nearest council benefit office. We will take the details we need and give you the documents back straight away. If you cannot get into the office, phone us for more advice.

If you do not provide all the proof we need, we might not be able to pay you any benefit. We need the same proof for your partner, if you have one.

If you cannot send the proof we need at the moment, send the form back to us now and send the proof later. We can start to process your claim, but we will not be able to pay you any benefit until we have all the proof.

- collected any proof to support your claim – but remember not to send valuable items, and
- filled in the Paying benefit to your landlord form – if you want any benefit you may be entitled to paid to your landlord.

Sharing information with your landlord

Sharing information with your landlord could help us deal with your claim more quickly and reduce the risk of you falling behind with your rent because of your claim being delayed.

We may need to confirm information with your landlord before we can make a decision on your claim, for example, the start date of your tenancy. In these circumstances, we can contact your landlord without your permission.

The law requires that we inform your landlord of certain decisions we make on your claim, for example, when a decision is made to pay your benefit to your landlord.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 we need your permission to discuss anything else.

If you give us permission, we would be able to tell your landlord whether:

- you have claimed Housing Benefit, or
- we have made a decision on your claim, or
- we need more information to make a decision on your claim, and what that information may be.

We will not give your landlord any information about:

- your personal or household circumstances, or
- your financial circumstances.

You can withdraw your permission at any time.

It will not affect your claim if you do not give us permission to discuss your claim with your landlord.

If you want to give us permission to discuss your claim with your landlord, please sign below.

I give my local council permission to share information about the progress of my Housing Benefit claim with my landlord or their representative.
